Guest Speaker

Gracie Pfau: We are talking about intramurals and what were offering. This year we are throwing E sports that entails games like FIFA, 2k, super smash bros. We are trying to find solutions for people to enjoy time and making this a large campus wide event. There will be a livestream broadcast of game in the HUB during dinner. We need different ways to get the word out to students and help advertising to people in the dorms. Contact me if you can help.

Jorge: when are you planning to do this?

Gracie: currently since you need an annual subscription, we want to host this year-round so a bit different, hopefully weekly tournament with prizes. Looking to find enough people to play. Hoping to be more inclusive with cross platform games to include more students.

Jorge: specific date?

Gracie: registration for fall outdoor season is Sunday but for e sports we have not set an official date so registration is currently open. Currently just trying to spread the word and sending out surveys to get more information. We will probably open registration until the end of October but open and close based on weekly tournaments.

Olivia: who do we contact and where to sign up for esports?

Gracie: contact my email @ lpfau21@my.whitworth.edu and to sign up you have to purchase a membership and then go to register under the intramurals page and register for e-sports so be on the lookout for more advertising and spread through word of mouth to let people know.

President Updates

Parker: We have 4 spots open for committees, so we are going to fill that out today. Board of trustees committees due Monday but they have to cut the amount of reps due to room restrictions so I left the first people on list to attend meetings. Accreditation meeting, Whitworth is up and onsite visit is scheduled for April 8th and 9th. Meeting with Jay Inslee last week with Beck and other state figures such as other student presidents and I spoke on what Whitworth was doing. Jay liked what Beck says to not do stupid stuff which is similar to WSU's don't be a Covidiot and Jay Inslee brought health officials to talk. We don't know the long-term effects of this virus; it is a serious health condition, but health officials are working with universities. I talked to Beck and numbers are a little high but overall I am happy with how they are and we can chug along.

FVP Updates

Faizan: Our accounts are at 20k each our meeting was last Sunday on Sept 20th and we tabled one requisition waiting for more information

Capital: $20,000

Unallocated: $ 20,000

EVP Updates

Hannah: I have meal cards; I will say code word during shoutouts. If joining during livestream pick up at hub. We have had lots of interest for elections but no applications turned in yet but we have until Sunday. Campaigning opens on the first so be aware of that and engage with those running. Full group training because we will be adding 12 new members so training will be on October 18th at 1-4pm in RTT, lunch provided. BYOD

David: what date?

Hannah: Oct 18 Sunday 1-4 pm and the student highlight is the Hosanna team they did a great job putting it on and very appreciated.

Upcoming Events

Off Campus Lunch:

David: next Friday October 2nd we are having lunch in loop for off campus students. Getting prepackaged meals like uncrustables and juice boxes throwback to elementary. It will be from 11-1

Marvel Trivia Night:

Emily: Also on oct 2nd but later on feel free to get lunch and nap. Doing it on kahoot also have marvel cookies and giving away golden trophies with cash prize. That will be at 8 pm.

Constituency ReportsStewart

Tim: Stewart is epic as always, will refer to what I said last week, res hall participation higher this year despite covid. Not ton of interaction for office hours looking for ways to fix that.

McMillan

Jaedon: doing good, a lot of students in lounges doing hw and playing games, so cool to see. Lots of questions of new positions and a lot of freshmen.

Off Campus

David: we have lunch thing upcoming send out email for sign up but not much

Ballard

Meghan: also, lots of interest for incoming rep position which is cool to see, not as much hanging out in lounges but working on it starting to see community bonding lots at office hours

Oliver

Olivia: Oliver doing good got Wi-Fi fixed today, pushed back power outage so now this Saturday.

Boppell

Jed: doing good office hours were eventful first session in lounge people were studying and talked to some people feeling good. Last two nights not as eventful.

Campus Vibes

Katie Rose: register to vote if you are able.

Jaedon: something I've heard concerning events is that there are a lot of questions on how chapel was able to do events with so many people but now events have not had many people. People have not been happy with that.

Jason: chapel is following guidance from the state because of religious exemptions that allows it to be held outside with 200 limit or inside 25%. We are following guidance which is event guidance which is a little better than state which is 5 people because higher ed is essential business ICT and covid care limit it to 30.

Shout outs

Hannah: codeword is neckbeard

Faizzan: shoutout to those who helped at movie

Rachel: Emily with iquest.

Hannah: also, shoutout to Emily for kahoot night.

Faizzan: shoutout to hannah for working on elections.
