Club Updates

Gaming Club

Emily: Play games such as uno and other games, it is a club just to have fun. This year there have been no board games, meet over discord for online games. Moving forward meetings will still be online and have a fundraising event, Whitcon which they are not sure if it will happen. Meet Saturdays noon to one. Contact Ecalabrese21@my.whitworth or whitworthgamingclub@gmail.com.

President Updates

Parker: If you want to help out with neighborhood greetings contact me with available times. Also let Jason know your plans for thanksgiving.

FVP Updates

Capital: $17,380
Unallocated: $ 19,100

Faizzan: Our accounts are the same, finance committee meeting on the 15th the deadline is on Friday.

EVP Updates

Hannah: One on ones are biweekly so be sure to sign up. Office hours reports are required by 11:59 on Sunday so please do those. Constituency feedback reports are going to be done over an online form since we can't go door to door, if you want questions added let us execs know. Would like a sweatshirt update and also continue nominating students. This week we are highlighting various diversity monologue speakers and also Drew Craddock and Ryan Bax.

Katie Rose: Last week we had a virtual conference for undergraduate research in the pacific northwest and Drew won the best presentation for organic chemistry and Ryan won the best overall oral presentation at the conference.

Upcoming Events:

Unplugged:

Sam: Today is last day to sign up and we have had many exciting signups so far. I will be sending out emails to those who have signed up

Love Your Neighbor:

Jason: Tomorrow night Chris Singleton will be here talking about celebrating similarities over zoom at 7 pm.

DIY Night:

Emily: Friday at 8 pm, still need 3 people to sign up and help for the stations.

Cultural Awareness Week:

Esther: This is next week, there are events every day. Posters just distributed on Monday there is a poetry slam at 7:30, need help finding volunteers the prompt is what does culture mean to you. On Tuesday there is a lecture with Dr. Arnold talking about native lives and youth leadership also at 7 pm. The rest of the week different clubs will be hosting events and all information can be found on posters and online.

Constituency Reports

Stewart

Tim: Epic, sweater process almost done. Next Saturday at 3 pm we have a Stewart pool tournament and winner gets $25 gift card, also only for residents.

McMillan

Jaedon: Got beeping fixed now clocks are broken other than that doing ok. Have heard people asking if we can have tables back in the loop and want more seating outside.

Off Campus

David: Not much news, I am working on the discord again and making content for that and to provide a space for people to connect on there.

Ballard

Meghan: Doing good, lots of community building.

Oliver

Olivia: Doing good, sweatshirts should be ready next week. The hall had a pinata hanging from our roof and it fell and had candy.

Boppell

Jed: Saw people playing ping pong so it's good to see that. Sent out a poll for sweatshirts.

Arend

Emma: Arend is doing good, sent out survey and got lots of responses and people brought up about not being able to go home and also about sodexo food.

Duvall

Xavier: Duvall doing pretty good, got a sweatshirt design picked out. Asked hall about a game night and lots of interest in that.

Warren

Isaac: Seen lots of people socializing and also studying for exams. Almost ready to order sweatshirts.

Baldwin Jenkins

Mac: BJ poppin off, going to have people vote on designs for sweatshirts. For an event want to try to do something with ping pong table.

Global Engagement Rep

Michael L: Few days ago, a few international students went back home and a few other students had struggle reaching financial aid counselor.

Whifflex rep

Victoria: Been getting lots of positive feedback about whitworth in general and excited to come back next semester.

Incoming Student Rep

Christian: Students seem to be doing well we had our meet and greet event and people were excited to get to know a lot of other freshmen so we will continue planning events.

Campus Vibes

Lauren: I keep hearing that lots of Jan term classes not being offered, is this because of COVID?

Faizzan: From what I heard it is that kind of year and had to cut some classes this year, but everything should be back by fall.

Olivia: also had problem with classes that a few profs are on sabbatical.

Rachel: this Saturday is the turkey trot the U-Rec is teaming up with En-Christo so bring donations

Jason: We had lots of interest in the student orientation shirt and we will now be selling them and funds we raise will go back into the ASWU account.

Parker: We ordered several inflatable suits yesterday for advertising.

Sam: Encourage all of us to follow the thanksgiving guidelines even though they may be difficult so I encourage everyone to follow guidelines as best as we can.

Michael B: To go off what Sam said especially for those off campus it is easier for them to leave so encourage everyone to follow guidelines and be safe.

Shout outs

Christian: To Jason who helped make fire for our smores event

Sam: To ASWU members who signed up for unplugged, can't wait to see your talents!

Mac: Christian and Georgia for the event heard good things

Jed: Also, to Christian and Georgia they did fantastic job

Georgia: Jason, Hannah and Christian for not getting mad at me when I forgot to bring the sticks

Lauren: Shout out to Whitworth for having 0 on campus cases after Halloween.
